Howdy Stranger

We get it.

You're the no-nonsense, no-fuss, no-stress kinda bride. The "I'd rather sip champagne than micromanage napkin folds" bride.

You're not here for a 300-guest circus. You want a small wedding that's simple, stylish, and doesn't set your wallet on fire. All the vibes, none of the drama.

And guess what? We love that for you. Because small doesn't mean boring. Intimate doesn't mean basic. And your wedding definitely doesn't have to look like it was thrown together in your uncle's backyard (sorry, Uncle Pete).

This package is designed for brides like you—low-key fabulous with a side of practicality. Big love, small guest list, maximum fun.

If this sounds like your vibe, then we're already soulmates. After all, weddings are our jam.

Love,
The Nut Farm
